Joel McHale will host the 2016 CFDA Fashion Awards on Monday, June 6, at the Hammerstein Ballroom. McHale is an American comedian, actor, writer, television producer, and television host. He is known for having hosted the E! network's 'The Soup' for twelve years, starring on NBC's Community, author of 'Thanks for the Money: How to Use My Life Story to Become the Best Joel McHale You Can Be' (available this fall) and is set to star in CBS's comedy 'The Great Indoors'.

Joel McHale joins the evening's nominees and honorees at the dynamic event, which will include a seated dinner and live performances from Jennifer Hudson and Michael C. Hall. Michael C. Hall, actor and star of Ivo van Hove's Lazarus, will perform a song to commemorate the extraordinary legacy and style of David Bowie, recipient of the Board of Directors' Tribute award. Actress Tilda Swinton will be accepting the award on behalf of the late artist.

The evening will close with a special performance by Grammy Award-winning recording artist and Academy Award-winning actress Jennifer Hudson. The Council of Fashion Designers of America, Inc. (CFDA) is a not-for-profit trade association founded in 1962 that leads industry-wide initiatives and whose membership consists of more than 500 of America's foremost womenswear, menswear, jewelry, and accessory designers.

In addition to hosting the annual CFDA Fashion Awards, which recognize the top creative talent in the industry, the organization owns the Fashion Calendar and stages New York Fashion Week: Men's.
